31 Hammaracha st., Tel Aviv

“Third Floor on the Left” is pleased to present “Chaise-Longue”, commissioned project by Yoav Weinfeld. “Chaise-Longue” is a site specific installation which includes drawings and objects, that refer and interact to the domestic environment as well as to their status as artworks. By tracing design elements that characterize specific bohemian taste, the apartment becomes a space of hidden perversions and desires between individual and an object. By using intervention, replacement as well as subtle disruption of the apartment’s arrangement, Weinfeld ponders about the identity of the inhabitants living there and their way of life.

Third Floor on the Left, is a residentially based seasonal project, constructed from several exhibitions and site-specific events, curated and hosted by Meital Aviram, curator and graduate of the Policy & Theory of the Arts, MA Program, at the Bezalel Academy of Arts and Design, Jerusalem. Followed by “DONA VICTORIA“, the inaugural group exhibition of the project, “Chaise-Longue” is the 2nd show of Third Floor on the Left.

Yoav Weinfeld (B. 1987, Jerusalem) gained his BFA at Bezalel Academy of art and Design, Jerusalem; and is currently participating in the MFA program of the institute. Weinfeld exhibited among the rest at Gabirol Gallery (2015), “Space Shuttle” project (2015); Mediterranea 18 Young Artists Biennale, Milan (2015); Loamei Hageatot Kibutz Gallery (2014); Hansen House, Jerusalem (2014); “Manofim”, Jerusalem (2014); as well as “Fresh Paint” art fair (2014). Weinfeld attended the “Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture” residency program (2016). In 2014, Weinfeld received a grant from the Rabinovitch Foundation.
